HEALTHY
NATIVE
COMMUNITIES
PARTNERSHIP

This forum is for community members and those working in partnership with them to bring about wellness and improve the lives of California Native people, their families and their communities.

The goal and focused intent of the Community Wellness Forum is to increase health and wellness engagement among California American Indian/Alaska Native communities through discussion and conversation. The intended impact is to inspire; engaging our imagination and building within our community.

These supporting objectives will be woven throughout the forum.

- Focus on solutions in order to get more solutions.
- Evaluate the impact of weaving community engagement, storytelling and mindfulness in community-wellness work.
- Identify collectively what is needed to bring about community wellness.
- Apply strategies for addressing issues that matter to community, through collaborative learning.
- Establish a foundation for community-community networking in a supportive space (meeting environment).

Call for Presentations

All registering are invited to submit proposals to present a 45 minute breakout session. Team or individual proposals can be submitted. All should be health and wellness focused and can address a range of critically important issues, their social interconnections and implications. By sharing solutions instead of focusing on the problems, we can promote more solutions. Proposals will be reviewed on an as received basis to fill a limited number of breakout sessions.
